2 17.10.2008 Heard learned counsels for the petitioners and the State.

Petitioners are accused for the offence under sections 379, 384/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that the present case has been lodged for ulterior purposes as would be evident on perusal of complaint filed by the petitioner against the present complainant for the serious offence and the manner of crime committed on her, as contained in Annexure-2 to the petition. It is further submitted that in retaliation of the above case the present case has been lodged alleging that the petitioner has taken a sum of rupees seven hundred from the pocket of the informant.

Having considered the submissions, as noticed above, and in the facts and circumstances of the case, it is directed that in the event of arrest or surrender within
